Figure Set
At $1500

Money to help finance Sierra Madre's float in the 1951 Tournament of Roses Parade will be solicited from residents beginning next week, Float Committee Chairman Al E. Morgan said yesterday.

Mr. Morgan said the float fund committee—headed by R. C. Lewis and Frank Spencer—has to raise $1500 for this year's parade entry which will depict a floral "Horn of Plenty."

Float Designer, Alfred James Dewey and Mr. Morgan attended a meeting of float representatives from various cities held Tuesday night at the Pasadena Athletic Club.

"Sierra Madreans are used to having prize-winning floats in the parade," Mr. Morgan said. "But in order to do it again, we must all help pay for it."

APRON KITBAGS TO AID SERVICEMEN

Sierra Madreans may now, in a small way, do something to better the living conditions of American servicemen.

The Sierra Madre Chapter, American Red Cross, has on hand a limited supply of apron kitbags which are ready for sewing and shipment to men of the Armed Forces.

Mrs. Florence Peterson, executive secretary, said the aprons are cut and ready to be sewn by residents. They may be picked up at the Chapter House, 41 S. Baldwin.

Apron kitbags are used by sailors, soldiers, and marines to hold their toilet articles when shaving and washing.

Christmas Window Contest
Judging Due Next Week

Merchants are urged to complete their Christmas window decorations by Monday, Dec. 11, so judging in the annual decorations contest can be conducted on Tuesday.

The NEWS once again is sponsoring the window contest, and a large trophy will go to the store having the "most unique and beautiful" holiday decorations. Ribbons will be awarded the second and third place winners.

Mrs. Ione E. Ward, NEWS publisher, has announced the following judges for the contest: Judge John C. Mead, Mrs. Edward Clinton Young and Artist Marvin Weese. The winning stores will be announced in next week's edition.

The trophy—dubbed the "Christmas Cup"—was won by Fashion Future last year. The first store winning it three years—not necessarily consecutively—is entitled to keep it, Mrs. Ward said.

Divergent Views Heard
On Recreation Program

Many divergent views on city recreation were aired Tuesday night at a public forum sponsored by the Coordinating Council and attended by 70 citizens.

And when the meeting was closed, nearly everyone present agreed that more questions had been raised than answered. The session ended on an appeal for representatives of the Coordinating Council to poll their respective organizations on what is wanted in Sierra Madre in the way of city recreation.

The Coordinating Council would channel all the recommendations into a specific program and present it to the Recreation Commission for subsequent recommendation to the City Council.

Howell N. White Jr., a member of the Recreation Commission, said the commission is Sierra Madre can have an additional 2000 acre feet of water a year—if it needs it after its water diversion and spreading grounds project is in operation.

This determination was made this week by the State Division of Water Resources. It is the culmination of two and a half years of negotiations, principally by Councilman Herman Barter.

It means that the city will never be short of water as long as water can be diverted from the Big Santa Anita channel through the proposed $200,000 diversion structure that soon will be built.

A spokesman for the state division said, however, that the first allocation probably won't be made until next year. It is presumed that by April water from the Big Santa Anita will be flowing into the city and sunk into the East Raymond Basin.

He said the city probably could have an allocation of 500 acre feet of water next year if it is needed. This allocation could be made even if no water is spread. The allocation will work like a bank account, thus in dry years additional water can be pumped, and then returned to the basin during the wet years.

The allocation granted each year represents additional pumping rights from the basin we share with Arcadia.

Any allocation, up to 2000 acre feet a year will be in addition to the present pumping

Christmas Party

Christmas customs of other countries will be featured at the annual Presbyterian Church Clipper Club Yule party, Monday evening, at the Noshier playroom, 265 North Mountain Trail.

CHRISTMAS ICICLES for the PE Depot holiday decorations are being made by Sierra Madre Camp Fire Girls and Brownie Scouts. The girls worked long and hard cutting out the icicles from heavy paper before actual "icing" began last week. These and other decorations will go up this Sunday, Dec. 10, as volunteer workers spend the day in transforming the station into another one of Sierra Madre's traditional Christmas scenes. Shown with the local girls are their leaders, Mrs. Francis Gentry (right) of the Camp Fire Girls and Mrs. Arthur Draeger of the Brownie Scouts.

Lewis, Nelson
Nominated for Grand Jury

Two Sierra Madreans are included in the list of nominees to the 1951 Grand Jury which was made public Tuesday.

R. C. Lewis, 350 Toyon Road, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre, was one of the local men nominated. His name was turned in by Judge Arthur Praeger.

The other local resident nominated was David F. Nelson of West Carter, a jeweler. He was nominated by Judge Otto J. Emme.

The Sierra Madreans were among 140 nominees, from which 19 will be selected for the Grand Jury after the first of the year.

Boy, Age 7,
Dies Suddenly

Sam Freund, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius A. Freund, 630 Mariposa, passed away at a hospital suddenly Tuesday, Dec. 5. He had been stricken with a brain condition on Monday, Nov. 27, and never fully regained consciousness.

Sam was a second-grade pupil in Mrs. Thelma McElfresh's class at Sierra Madre City School.

The youngster is survived by his parents and a younger brother, Dwight, age 5.

The child's father is an engineer with a Los Angeles furniture manufacturing firm and is a Sunday School teacher at the Foothill Community Jewish Center.

PREMIERE OF
LOCAL HISTORY
AT DINNER

The Jubilee dinner of the Sierra Madre Historical Society on the occasion of presenting the "Annals of Sierra Madre" will be a reunion of old-timers and interested citizens.

President C. W. Jones advises that the date of the dinner (the very near future) will be made by telephone. It will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse. Lee Shippey will be master of ceremonies and Ed Ainsworth of the Los Angeles Times will be the principal speaker.

Miss Clara Sykes of 91 W. Highland avenue will be in charge of the sale of dinner tickets. Copies of the new book will be distributed at the dinner. (The Annals left the Sierra Madre News presses this week.)

GIRLS TEAM UP TO
FROST YULE ICICLES

Snow was thick at the City pump plant last Saturday morning when Sierra Madre Camp Fire Girls and Brownie Scouts frosted the icicles for the Christmas decoration of the Square.

Brownie Scouts from Troop 15, under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Draeger and Mrs. Earl Morris, teamed up with Tandra Stirton's Troop and Ta Wan Ka Campfire Girls under the leadership of Mrs. Francis Gentry.

This is the fourth consecutive year that Mrs. Gentry's group has worked on the project. The girls spent many hours at regular meetings cutting the icicles from heavy paper before the actual icing began. Leaders of the troops were assisted by Mrs. Leroy Toms, Mrs. Charles McWade and Mrs. David Roess. Members of the Tandra Campfire girls: Judith Green, Elise Parker, Sarah Carver, Helen de Clerq, Connie Carr, Marilyn

Local Woman's Club Plans
'Reciprocity Day' Program

"Reciprocity Day" will be observed by the Sierra Madre Woman's Club next Wednesday, Dec. 13, beginning at 11 a. m. Club President Miss Elizabeth Steinberger announced this week.

Woman's club officers from all over the southland have indicated they will attend the meeting.

Isabel Stradley, of the Sierra Madre Public Library, will address the women during the morning session and discuss with them several of the latest books.

Following the luncheon, Mrs.

Helen Hawley Narozny, art chairman of the local Woman's Club, will exhibit handicraft work of Sierra Madre hobbyists. Several demonstrations

STORES TO STAY
OPEN EVENINGS

With the official opening of the Christmas season, Sierra Madre stores will remain open evenings every week night beginning Monday, Dec. 11.

Most merchants have announced they will keep their doors open for the added convenience of holiday shoppers until 9 p. m. Monday through Friday, the Chamber of Commerce said.

Several Sierra Madre business establishments already have been staying open on Friday evenings, it was pointed out.

Masons Elect
John C. Mead
1951 Master

John C. Mead Tuesday night was elected 1951 master of the Sierra Madre Lodge, No. 408, F. and A. M. He succeeds John W. Adams.

Other officers elected Tuesday night were Thomas C. Pollgreen, senior Warden; Harry B. Humphreys, junior warden; Wilbur S. Hull, treasurer; and Raymond B. Pease, secretary.

City Judge Mead, as new master, appointed other officers following his election. They are William E. Bowers, chaplain; James W. Moore, senior deacon; Henry Vis, junior deacon; Nelson E. Morrison, marshal; Thurman A. Gorenth, senior steward; Stanley Coutant, junior steward; Thomas R. Meader, P. M., organist, and Henry Rintelman, P. M., tiler.

Judge Mead served in 1948 as master of the local lodge, so his election this week marks a return to office. Last year, he was senior warden.

Retiring Master John Adams said the new officers will be installed on Jan. 17, with Stephen E. Skidmore, inspector of the 93rd Masonic District, serving as installing officer, and George Morgridge as master of ceremonies.

'Mitten Tree'
Appeal Heard
By Residents

Sierra Madreans are "responding beautifully" to the plea of last week to help decorate a "Mitten Tree" now on display in the window of Rikeman's Gift Shop.

Mrs. Sam Haskins Jr., 171 W. Orange Grove, local chairman of the American Friends Service Committee-sponsored "Mitten Drive," said 10 or 12 pairs of mittens were hung on the tree the first day, Friday.

Residents last week were asked to knit or buy mittens to hang on the tree for subsequent shipment to needy children and adults overseas. Mittens of any color and size are urgently needed in foreign lands as winter weather begins, it was pointed out.

Many countries, still recovering from World War II, are unable to manufacture mittens because their factories were destroyed and sheep slaughtered, Mrs. Haskins said.

She asked Sierra Madreans to knit or purchase as many pairs of mittens as possible between now and the first of the year.

For persons who have no yarn, Mrs. Haskins said she will have a "limited supply" available at Rikeman's tomorrow, Dec. 8, between the hours of 10 and 12.

Dump Considered
'Only Way Out'

Plans for establishment of a rubbish dump, calling for extensive use of heavy equipment, in the middle of a Sierra Madre residential area, were being blueprinted this week by the City Council.

This admittedly was the only way out for councilmen who last week failed to find a solution to disposal of several thousand tons annually of combustible rubbish.

The proposed dump site is just north of Miramonte avenue between Mount Wilson Trail and Carter avenue. The area is known as Bowman's Canyon.

Protests over this proposal were descending on City Hall. One letter, from Donald C. Parker, 31 E. Highland, declared:

"A dump in this area not only would ruin property values for those that already have built homes, but it would spoil the district for any further development. The possible financial benefit to one property owner certainly could not offset the damage to other property owners."

He said "rights of freedom from public annoyance" were being jeopardized.

The residential dump site plan, worked out by Mr. Shatto, might have remained a City Hall secret but for the fact that

FUN AND WORK PROMISED
YULE DISPLAY VOLUNTEERS

A lot of fun and a lot of work is promised Sierra Madreans who come down to the PE Depot Sunday, Dec. 10, to help with the traditional Christmas decorations.

The Chamber of Commerce has issued a call to "everybody" to help trim the huge tree and convert the depot into a country meeting house. Work will begin at 9 a. m. and continue through the day.

Many citizens already have put in many hours in getting ready for the "final push" on Sunday. A huge steeple, prepared by Manuel de la Torre and Jack Moffett, will be brought to the Square Saturday for erection as one of the major contributions to the display.

Al E. Morgan, Chamber president, cautioned residents to wear their old clothes during the "proceedings" Sunday.

GIRL SCOUTS TO SELL CALENDARS

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts will be selling their 1951 calendars tomorrow afternoon and Saturday morning.

Troops 12, 13, and 15 will have tables set up in front of the Bank of Sierra Madre, Roberts Market, and the local Safeway Store.

Firemen Selling Tickets
For Christmas Dance

As time nears for the Firemen's Annual Christmas Dance and Party, Sierra Madre firefighters are "working feverishly" to complete the ticket sales, according to Chief James C. Heasley.

The traditional dance at the Woman's Clubhouse is scheduled this year for next Saturday, Dec. 16. The Christmas Tree and Treat Party for Sierra Madre boys and girls will be held Christmas Eve, Dec. 24.

Blue-uniformed volunteer firemen can be seen every night trudging along the sidewalk or up a driveway in their house-to-house canvass to sell dance tickets.

"Many Sierra Madreans donate to the Christmas Fund who have no desire to attend the party," Chief Heasley said. But those who can always look forward to this, the greatest party of the year."

City firemen report they are meeting success in their ticket sales, but admit they have a long way to go to raise the money needed.

CITY PLANS

Only one bid was received, that from Mr. Kazarian, for a rate of $1.25 a month per residential meter. He later appeared before the Council to explain his bid and negotiate a contract satisfactory to both parties.

City councilmen admitted that the Council was negligent in failing to advertise for bids sufficiently in advance to allow time for just such a contingency as they now face.

Legal advertising called for opening of bids November 28—two days before the end of the contract—as per orders of the City Council. The single bid for $1.25 was admittedly too much for the city to pay.

The Council at that meeting moved to take the matter "under advisement." And it was not until City Attorney Cornyn reminded the Council that some action would have to be taken before December 1 that the special Thursday meeting was scheduled.

The Council missed whatever chance it had for a negotiated contract at the Thursday night meeting. Mr. Kazarian had announced that he was not anxious to enter into the contract again because he had lost $17,000 during the past two years here. But he discussed possible negotiations during last Thursday with Mr. Shatto and Councilman Herman Barter.

Mr. Kazarian said he would drop the offer for residential charges from $1.25 to $1 and Commercial from $4.50 to $1.50 a meter, if certain changes were made in the contract.

He appeared at the Council meeting with his attorney, Maynard Henry, to negotiate from that offer.

He had told Mr. Barter that in the absence of an agreement with the city he would allow a continuation of the present service for 30 or 60 days, thus giving the Council a chance to readvertise for other bids without disruption of collection service to residents.

Both Mayor William Kinney and Councilman Eaton demanded to know what increased services were proposed and what part of the bid represented dumping charges.

Mr. Henry frankly told the Council that it could accept or reject any bid or offer but that a breakdown of the charges was "none of its business." He said that among the increased services was the pickup of ashes that had been included in the specifications at the Council's order.

When, during the excitement, Councilman Eaton bluntly called Mr. Kazarian a "monopolist," both Mr. Henry and Mr. Kazarian got up and left the room.

"I want no part of the contract," Mr. Kazarian said as he left.

It was pointed out to the Council that it had not adequate solution to the city's rubbish problem now that it had abruptly cut off negotiations before they had begun.

Mayor Kinney replied smugly: "How do you know we haven't?"

The Council went into its secret session. It ordered Mr. Shatto to have city trucks pick up the rubbish and haul it to the Monterey Park dump 28 miles away—temporarily.

The solution referred to by the mayor appears to be a dump in the middle of one of Sierra Madre's better residential districts.

POLICE BLOTTER

A drunk causing a disturbance. Brother and mother objected. Too much wine from the stimo makes one stinko and very, very repulsive. Even the cops hate the odor.

Dogs running loose, a smoldering and stench-producing incinerator, an auto accident, a call for the cops to turn down the neighbor's radio, theft of an auto's skirts, and horses on the sidewalk are just a sample of the daily calls to the office of the police.

A suspicious boy is turned over to his parents from Glendale.

Mysterious disappearance of valuable tokens from a local gas station. The return was just as mysterious. Being of no value to anyone but the service station owner, it is strange that they were taken. They do rattle, however.

Too many flies soaring over the area is sufficient reason for a call to the police. Flies flying furiously from far rubbish retains rattle snake resemblance. Phooie-e-e.

Rocks in her yard for years cannot be blamed on the neighbors as a recent disposal. A traffic accident. Dog injured by truck. Owners must keep the dogs at home, unless on a leash. It IS the LAW.

Probably the first purse snatcher appeared in town when he relieved a local woman of her shekels and identification cards just after dark at a very dark spot beneath overhanging trees. Keep a good grip on 'em girls.

Don't dump rubbish anywhere in the City! You may need to gather it all again. An attempt was made to enter a car through the side windows. Missing person.

Be on the lookout for some of the old time gags. A man was in town trying to leave a "glasshouse Diamond" as security for a small purchase and a few dollars. DON'T DO IT!

A young scientist was soon placed under control when he was found shooting dangerous flares into the skies.

Mrs. Barkman of Michillinda was on the ball when she saw a fellow deliberately dump tin cans, etc., along Michillinda. She not only spoke her piece, but insisted that he remove them and also made certain that she got all the needed information for the police, such as name of car and license number.

During the absence of residents, their house was entered by burglars. The ransacking was most complete. What are we coming to? These things the police are against.

Drivers are warned about turning in front of the new post office. It is against the state law to turn without the proper clearance, which means that if there is a car coming from either direction within a distance that a hazard is created, you are wrong if you turn. Better watch out.

Judge Mead Faces Busy Saturday

City Judge John C. Mead will have a busy morning this Saturday, Dec. 9.

At 10 a. m. he will preside as usual in Sierra Madre's city court. Then at 10:30, Judge Mead will hurry over to Arcadia to preside in Judge David Sweet's court. Judge Sweet has been called out of town for the weekend.

CLUB HEARS ABOUT TRIP

A recent trip of 4500 miles through the southwestern sections of the United States was described for Kiwanis Club members Tuesday by John H. Curtis, founder and general manager of the National Real-estate.

Mr. Curtis spent some time in touring the ancient cliff dwellings at Mesa Verde National Monument in Colorado. He said the fact that many of these Indians became extinct after a severe drought in 1276 points out the importance of water to Southern Californians.

The speaker was introduced by Bill Bodley, Kiwanis chairman of the day.

Tools Worth $358 Stolen In Burglary

A burglar ransacked a Sierra Madre home Saturday night and made away with machinists' tools valued at $358.85.

The victim, Maynard McFarlane, 24 Sierra Place, said he and Mrs. McFarlane were away from home all weekend. They returned Sunday to find their house a shambles and a metal chest of tools missing.

Included in the stolen loot were a stop watch worth $60, a slide rule, a photoengraver's magnifier, and a sailmaker's palm and needle set.

Police said the method of operation indicated that the burglar may be the same man who has broken into other Sierra Madre homes recently. Chief Gordon G. McMillan said entry was made by forcing a window.

Sunday Morning Chanukah Service

Sunday School Children of the Foothill Jewish Community Center will present a Chanukah program, a holiday service known as the "Festival of the Lights," Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

All children, whether members of the Sunday School or not, have been invited to join in the festivities which include refreshments and an exchange of gifts.

Dr. Charles W. Steckel, Rabbi of the Temple, will conduct the Chanukah Services for patients of the City of Hope at 5:30 tomorrow evening.

Toy Loan Will Close 3 Weeks

The Sierra Madre Toy Loan at the City Park will be closed for three weeks during the Christmas Holidays—the last two weeks in December and the first week in January.

According to Toyrarian, Mrs. Clyde Hoover, Toy Loan will resume business as usual on Tuesday, January 8, 1951. They will continue the same schedule, remaining open every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Hoover urges that people cleaning out closets, etc., turn over unused or discarded toys to Toy Loan. Old and broken toys are then turned into the Los Angeles Toy Workshop for rehabilitation.

"Trees," Subject At Monday Garden Club

The Monday night dinner of the S. M. Garden Club will be the final meeting of 1950. The dinner at 6:30 will be followed by the yearly business meeting and election of officers.

Willard Hagan of Arcadia, a specialist, will speak on "Trees, Ornamental and Fruit, Their Pruning and General Culture." He will answer questions at the conclusion of his address.

X-Ray Unit Here Averages 292 Per Day

The chest x-ray unit located in front of the Bank of Sierra Madre averaged 292 x-rays a day during the five-day visit last month, R. C. Lewis, local X-Ray Survey chairman, reported this week.

Mr. Lewis said the daily average per machine was considered "very good" by county survey officials.

Of six San Gabriel Valley cities comprising Mr. Lewis' survey district, Sierra Madre ranked fourth with a total 1496 x-rays taken here. Monrovia was first with 6265. Arcadia second with 5781; and Azusa third with 2074.

Trailing Sierra Madre were Glendora with 1104 and Duarte with 805 x-rays.

Mrs. Keisel Passes Away

Mrs. Mae S. Keisel, Sierra Madre merchant, passed away Friday, Dec. 1, ending an illness of several months. She had been assisting her husband at The Drapery Shop, 31 N. Baldwin.

Mrs. Keisel, a native of Glasgow, Scotland, had resided in Sierra Madre for two years, living at 521 Ramona. She was a member of the Daughters of the British Empire and of the Methodist Church.

Besides her husband, Victor H. Keisel, Mrs. Keisel is survived by two sons, Dick and Jack, both of Sierra Madre, and daughter Mrs. Marion Badger of Glendale.

Funeral services were held Monday, Dec. 4, at Grant Chapel, the Rev. Douglas S. Walters officiating. Interment was at Rose Hills Cemetery in Whittier.

Nursery School Dance to Fill Plaza Pantry

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association has planned to incorporate a "pantry shower" of canned foods for the local Plaza Community Center Children's Home, along with their annual Christmas dance, Saturday night, Dec. 9.

The dance and buffet supper will be held at the Woman's Clubhouse and each person attending will bring a can of food.

The midnight buffet supper is being planned by John J. Golden and holiday decoration chairmen are Mrs. Harry E. Baker Jr. and Mrs. George E. Dore.

Dance co-chairmen are Mrs. John H. Carr and Mrs. George Barnett.

Lions to Get Fishing Tips

Lions Club members and guests are expected to get some new tips on tuna fishing when a film on the subject is shown at their weekly meeting tonight.

Douglas Dickson is chairman of the evening, according to Sterling T. Ripple, Lions president.

Every Third House to Get Copy of 'Survival' Booklet

Sufficient copies of the pamphlet, "Survival Under Atomic Attack," have been received from Sacramento to assure distribution through the mails to approximately every third Sierra Madre household, the local Civil Defense Council reported this week.

Col. Charles E. Morrison represented the Sierra Madre Council last Thursday at a meeting of the Los Angeles County Federation of Community Coordinating Councils, during which present and future plans for civil defense in the state and county were discussed.

Watchword of the talks presented on Civil Defense was "mutual aid" in case of atomic attack, mass bombing, fire, or other disaster, Colonel Morrison reported.

Mutual aid should start in the home—then neighbor helping neighbor, block helping block, and so on until outside help arrives.

The colonel said mutual aid requires that at least one member of each household is qualified in first aid. Sierra Madre's Red Cross Chapter is set up to give this instruction, and a 20-hour evening course is being planned.

In order to get the first aid programs underway, Colonel Morrison said each city of the state has been asked to appoint qualified block wardens as soon as possible.

The State Civil Defense Council wrote all cities this week, pointing out the urgency of appointing block wardens and describing some of their duties.

Choir Will Sing At Jewish Temple

Newly organized choir of seven voices will be a regular feature of the Friday evening services at the Foothill Jewish Community Center, starting tomorrow 8:30 p. m., Dec. 8.

Members of the choir are: Sophie Paul, leader; Lea Elburg, Alice Glaser, Barbara de Hahn, Deborah Howe, Sonia and Aza Cohen, Nathan Paul, Don Weissman and Sam Elburg.

Rabbi Charles Steckel will speak on "The Eternal Question: 'How to Survive?'"

Hostesses tomorrow night will be the Women's Division of the Center.

KIWANIS BOARDS MEET TONIGHT

A combined Kiwanis board and organizational meeting for 1951 will be held this evening, Dec. 7, at the home of Dr. P. R. Woodworth, 522 W. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Both the 1950 and 1951 Kiwanis Club boards, as well as new committee chairmen, will attend the meeting, according to President James Spencer.

GOOD NEWS!

You can reduce your weight and benefit your health at the same time without reducing diets, exercise or harmful drugs.

The Edwards System of Weight Control is based upon a new and proven theory of the CAUSE of over-weight.

Because Dr. Lee W. Edwards, M.D., was over-weight himself and did not believe that all fat people ate too much and exercised too little, he devoted a life-time on research. Splendid results are being obtained by persons who are taking this sensible treatment.

We would be glad to have you come in for a free consultation and advice to discuss your particular problem.

School Pupils to Present Yuletide Play, 'Toyland'

"Toyland" is the title of the Christmas play planned for next Wednesday, Dec. 13, at 7:15 in the City School auditorium.

In addition to a choir and Santa Claus in his workshop, dolls of many types and jacks-in-the-box will be portrayed by children of the primary department.

According to Superintendent Charles A. Skutt, all pupils of the first, second and third grades will take part in the traditional Christmas program at City School.

The play was written by Mrs. Matilda Smith, director of music at the school. Room mothers are in charge of costumes. Mr. Skutt said a matinee performance will be given for the school on Tuesday, Dec. 12. Admission is free to the public on Wednesday, and children accompanied by parents also are invited to attend.

LOCAL WOMAN'S

In the receiving line to welcome members and guests will be Miss Steinberger, local club officers, and members of the board.

Among the invited guests are Mmes. Joseph C. Wenger, state vice-president at large; Claude Sueden, Los Angeles district president; George F. Turechek, Los Angeles County president; Charles Cottermole, Alhambra Roundtable Club; L. T. Dick, president of the Altadena Woman's Club; Charles F. Gouther, president of the Arcadia Woman's Club; Frances Tyck, president of the Azusa club; Carl Wilhelm, president of the Baldwin Park Woman's Club;

Charles Eakin, president of the Claremont club; Truman Johnson, president of the Covina club; E. D. Mark, president of the Duarte club; Mills H. Beeks, president of the El Monte club; Philip J. Paul Tate Host Michigan Guests

Michigan guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tate, 350 N. Lima, were Mrs. A. Dean Hatton and 4-year-old daughter, Linda, from Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Tate said a family reunion is planned for the New Year holiday with several relatives coming to Sierra Madre from various points in the nation.

DIVERGENT VIEWS

sion, pointed out that the commission has not been told by citizens what is most wanted in a recreation program.

The question most repeatedly asked by citizens and members of the panel Tuesday night was whether city money should be spent on expanding recreation facilities or on providing supervision.

Mr. White said facilities, of course, are important, but more important in a recreation program is youth leadership. As a parallel, he pointed out that it is possible to have teachers without a school but that it is impossible to have a school without teachers.

"At present," Mr. White said, "Sierra Madre has no recreation program because it has no youth leadership of any kind."

Councilman Noren Eaton expressed the opinion that if the city provides recreation facilities it has done its duty. The more money spent on tangibles, the better the city has done its job, he said. It is a departure from that principle when public funds are used for leadership.

"I have a tendency to resist the taking by a government of any activity that can be performed by citizens or private organizations," Mr. Eaton stated.

Speakers on the panel—besides Mr. White and Mr. Eaton—were Councilman Alexander Black, Superintendent Charles Skutt, Eugene Lunsford, the Rev. Carl Smith, and Former Recreation Director Samuel E. McElfresh. Moderator was Harry Eder.

Local Pharmacist Enjoys a Review Of Illinois Life

Arthur J. Severn of 167 E. Highland avenue experienced a happy surprise this week when he received his copy of the home-town paper, The Crystal Lake Herald, published at Crystal Lake, Ill.

The anniversary edition included a picture of Mr. Severn's drug store on Main street with himself posing with other business men before the door. Mr. Severn's father, the Rev. J. R. Severn, settled in Crystal Lake in 1884. Mr. Severn later built a large new drug store which he still owns.

After 23 years at Crystal Lake Mr. Severn went to Chicago where he was in the drug business until coming to California. Mr. and Mrs. Severn are ardent boosters of Sierra Madre which they have enjoyed as "home" for many years.

Gas Tokens Returned to Al Foxton

A happy ending was added Sunday morning to the gasoline tokens "disappearance" case of last week.

The bag containing $913 worth of gas pump tokens was returned to Al Foxton's Chevron Station late Saturday night, and found by Mr. Foxton Sunday morning when he opened the station for work.

He said the bag was left in approximately the same spot from which it was taken Friday, Nov. 24.

The 83 gasoline coins, worth $11 each, are used by Chevron station owners to pump gas from the underground tanks to the retail pumps. Last week, Chief of Police Gordon G. McMillan had stated in the NEWS that the tokens are worthless to anyone but a Chevron gas station operator.

With the return of the tokens, Mr. Foxton said his faith in human nature was restored.

Tourist Thinks Town Gets Action Fast

At least one out-of-town visitor has the impression that things get done fast in Sierra Madre.

H. C. Lattin, city engineer of Fallon, Nevada, arrived in town last Monday and commented—privately to his wife—that the business district of Sierra Madre "certainly needs more lighting."

The next day as he strolled downtown, Mr. Lattin had the uncanny sensation that his private opinion had been heard and heeded. Workmen were busily installing new street light poles.

(Editor's note: We didn't have the heart to disillusion Mr. Lattin and tell him that the new lights had been in prospect for several months.)

The Nevada residents left Sierra Madre last Friday after a short visit with Mrs. Lattin's mother, Mrs. J. W. Tyree of Hermosa, and uncle, J. T. Rallsbach, 309 E. Sierra Madre boulevard.

Yule Cards Show Depot Decorations

Holiday greeting cards picturing the square and the P. E. Station as they will be decorated next Sunday will be available for Sierra Madreans.

Artist Bernard Wynne's drawing for the proposed decorations received such enthusiastic praise and admiration that requests began pouring into the Chamber of Commerce office for reproduction for mailing.

"We decided to have the cards made because it isn't often that people get a chance to have such a personalized greeting card—a picture of their own home town's Holiday celebration," Chamber President Al Morgan said.

The cards will be available Monday at the Chamber office in the City Hall and at the News office. They will be reasonably priced at printing cost, approximately 7 cents each.

Holiday Mail Advice Given

With the holiday season beginning and new men substituting for regular mail carriers, Sierra Madre Postmaster Eddie D. Robertson this week made several suggestions for residents. Here they are:

1. Check your house number; see that it is attached to the house and in plain view from the street.

2. See that your mailbox is in good condition and not hidden in shrubbery.

3. If your mailbox is hanging on the side of a tree, mark the house number on the box with paint or some other contrasting color.

4. Please give every assistance possible to the carrier or parcel post deliveryman. Answer the doorbell promptly, as there will be many COD's and insured packages requiring signatures.

Indian Guide District Elects Harold Clardy

Representatives of the Y Indian Guide Father and Son Tribes of the Santa Anita District YMCA met last Wednesday night at the YMCA office to discuss plans for organizing a Y Indian Guide Longhouse and to plan an overall program for various tribes in the district.

Present from the Blackfoot Tribe of Sierra Madre were Harold B. Clardy, chief, and Samuel Kirk, tallykeeper. The little braves, sons and dads, did not attend this first meeting.

Wendell Miller of Arcadia was elected big chief of the Longhouse and Harold Clardy the assistant big chief. Plans were made for a meeting of all tribes at the Pasadena YMCA early in January for a night of inter-tribal competition, swimming, and games.

The Longhouse representatives also plan to help new tribes get started and to schedule additional district-wide programs for the tribes.

PARKING SNARL UNTANGLED HERE

Peggy Jane Jett, charged with parking on private property in the Mount Wilson Trail area, got off with a suspended $5 sentence Saturday morning when she proved that the property owner had given her permission to park there after all.

The permission came belatedly, however, since the owner, Mrs. Gladys K. Carter, 666 Mt. Wilson Trail, was the one who had at first requested police to issue the citation.

Mrs. Carter explained the situation to Judge John C. Mead in a letter and pointed out that she had not been informed that Mrs. Jett was a visitor to one of the other cabin owners north of her house.

Resident, 97, Still Takes Daily Walks

Elam K. Herr doesn't let the fact that he is 97 years old interfere with his daily walks around town.

Mr. Herr, a retired drygoods merchant of Bloomfield, Iowa, has been a resident of California for seven years and now makes his home at Crestview Lodge in Sierra Madre. He is the father of Mrs. H. E. Johnson, 585 W. Grandview.

A member of a family of six—each of whom lived to be at least 80 years old—Mr. Herr taught for several years at Marysville Teachers' College in Pennsylvania. An active life is the key to a long life, he believes.

Gotcher Rehired As Policeman

M. E. "Tex" Gotcher went on the city payroll Friday, Dec. 1, rehired as a Sierra Madre police officer.

Mr. Gotcher had been on military leave since Sept. 6 while serving in the U. S. Army. He received his discharge Nov. 18.

Since Mr. Gotcher's return makes one too many officers in the Police Department—according to the 1950-51 budget, that is—the City Council moved to dismiss Officer Marciano E. Cuellar, the most recently-hired policeman.

Wynne Watercolor At Art Institute

Sierra Madre artist, Bernard Wynne of 188 Santa Anita Ct., who recently became a member of the California Water Color Society, has a painting "Newport Harbor" hanging in the Society's current exhibit at the Pasadena Art Institute.

Mr. Wynne recently sold a watercolor "Harbor Scene," which was hanging in the Avenue of American Art exhibit at the Mar Monte Hotel in Santa Barbara. Several of his oil and watercolor portraits are still on display there.

Fur Styles Smart Witch Luscious New Linings

This season linings are news. Colorful linings emphasize a new fashion note in this Fall's furs. Rustling taffeta in warm, vivid colors, plaids, bright red failles, all alive with color and gaiety. Bright taffetas are appearing in a whole range of colors from chartreuse to red-black iridescents. These wonderful linings do much for a black, blue or grey Persian lamb. Then too, the new tremendous sleeves, sling capes, etc., provide many glimpses of the linings, hence, their selection is important.

Little Furs are definitely a "must" for this Fall and Winter, it is only natural therefore that Paris and New York should take the lead in the matter of stoles and capes.

Hats Go High In Gay Paree

Paris goes high hat this Fall. Crowns are raised, but the shape is still light, small, and hugging.

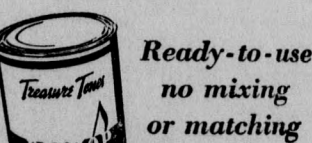

The rise is often effected by pointing the center of a round crown. Noted are plum pudding crowns, and those that look like upside-down paper bags. Pill box hats are deeper, a departure from the pancake. Inverted flower pot hats are worn back on the center of the head, showing much of the hair.

Favored fabrics are slicked down hatter's plush, thick velours and supple felt. Colors are spicy like ketchup, orange peel and cinnamon.

Towels dry fluffier, softer

in my automatic gas clothes dryer...
with far less work
for me... at far lower cost, too!

Automatic Gas Clothes Dryer illustrated is WHIRLPOOL. Other leading makes include Bendix and Kenmore.

My new automatic gas clothes dryer supplies perfect drying weather whenever I choose to wash... reduces drying time to minutes... assures soft, fluffy sweet-smelling clothes... and saves me so much work. For example, I no longer lug heavy baskets to outside lines. I don't hang up pieces and in turn take them down. I just toss my wet clothes into my automatic gas clothes dryer... set the control... and in a matter of minutes take them out.

Yes, clothes drying is really convenient with my new gas clothes dryer... so much faster, too! And besides being better, gas costs less. The installed price of an automatic gas clothes dryer is lower than that of other automatic dryers. The operating cost is lower, too. With gas, it's only 2¢ to 3¢ per dryer-full.

See the displays now at dealers' or your Gas Company. Then ask your Santa (or use your Christmas money) to bring you the pleasure and convenience of automatic gas clothes drying.

Powerful Hitting Paves Way for VFW Victory

Combining powerful hitting with cautious fielding, the Sierra Madre VFW Raiders battered Kelly's All-Stars 15 to 3, Sunday afternoon at the city ball park. The victory gave the Raiders a record of 22 wins and 7 losses.

Sierra Madre hurler Stueve reversed a previous defeat—his only loss in 10 games—by Kelly's and pitched a brilliant game, holding the visitors to five hits and three runs.

First-base man Bill Evans snapped out of a three-game batting slump to pound a grand slam homer in the third inning and two doubles to drive in five runs and pace the slugfest. Each of the nine Sierra Madre players hit safely at least once.

Other two-base hits were collected by Raiders Frazier, Franco, Dixon, Schaefer, and Nielson. Howie Nielson belted his usual two doubles.

Earl Schaefer, left fielder, performed two of the best fielding plays this year in the second inning. The first was a backhand catch near the foul line and, a little later, he tipped up a hard-hit drive in deep left field and caught the ball when it came down.

The Raiders originally had been scheduled to play the Los Angeles Cherubs, but a last-minute switch sent the All Stars here to play off a rubber game. Kelly's previously had won one and lost one against Sierra Madre.

Larry Shepherd, VFW team manager, said next Sunday's game definitely will be with the Cherubs, beginning at 1:30 p. m.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

by RALPH (Val) VALENCIA

SHUFFLING ALONG

Sierra Madre's Adult Shuffleboard Club sent 3 two-man teams to Pasadena Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 29, to accept a challenge issued them. The courts were in fine shape, the weather ideal, and the players in tip-top form. The matches were played in this manner: three 30-minute sessions, and at the end of each session the score was tallied.

When the final session was over Pasadena Club had 591 points and Sierra Madre Club had 680 points.

Teams lined up as follows: Court No. 1, R. Steel and Dan Rauscher of S. M. vs. Dr. Riggs and Ernest Cragge of Pas. Court No. 2, R. Stubbs and A. Whaley of S. M. vs. H. Baren and F. Crank of Pasadena. Court No. 3, E. Funkhouser and J. Ogden of S. M. vs. Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Baren of Pasadena.

Joseph Hedges, court manager, refereed the games, and coffee and doughnuts were served by Carl Martin, acting as chef between sessions. The two clubs took this opportunity of honoring Dan Rauscher who was playing his last games with the local team as he is leaving soon for St. Paul, Minn., to go into the trucking business with his brother-in-law.

Good luck Dan, and drop us a line.

BULL'S EYE NOTES

Lead was flying at the Burbank Rifle range Sunday. The Santa Anita Rifle Club of our fair city, some 12 or more members, traveled to Burbank for their final scores in the D.C.M. Large Bore Rating for this year.

From all reports the boys sure tore the targets apart. I am not able to give you the official scores at this time, although it has been whispered that D. F. Satten had a nice 186 2/3 average for his efforts. I hope to have the complete roster and averages of our local club for you in the very near future.

ON THE FAIRWAYS

Local golfers were pushed around. On arriving at Brookside golf course Sunday, it was discovered that Pasadena was having its annual golf tournament. So not wanting to embarrass any of the pros or top ranking amateurs, we decided to let them push us around—which they did. The trouble was that when they quit pushing we were in our cars headed for home, consequently no golf news.

DOWN THE LANES

Clay Noshier is holding a nice average in the Monrovia Majors, banging the pins to the tune of 171. Fred Klinkke holds the 5th spot among the first 5 men in the same league, with a 183 average.

Even with Andy Liscomb's 529 series, the Arts A. A. Chix lost 4 in the Monday Handicap and dropped to 5th place.

Harry Mazzaro is topping the pins for a 169 average both at Arcadia and Monrovia.

Another local bowler who is scattering pins in nice fashion is Leon Ware who is bowling with Western Surgical at a 167 average in the 825 scratch league on Monday nights at Arcadia.

In trying to forget this, I am conscious bound to report in a whisper though, that the Sierra Madre Merchants lost 2 of the three games bowled last Thursday night.

Do your Christmas Shopping in SIERRA MADRE

There are many good reasons for you to do all your Christmas shopping right here in Sierra Madre as there are wonderful gifts in the pack Santa has brought to our home-town stores. For proof of the puddin' just take a walk downtown and see for yourself.

Our well stocked stores will be open evenings beginning Monday night for your greater shopping convenience. No need to take a day off to travel out of town in search of the very things you'll find easier here. No sense either in wasting money from your Christmas budget to buy gasoline for traveling out of town. Save that money. Use it for better and more gifts this Christmas.

Shopping in Sierra Madre means most of all that you'll be shopping among friendly merchants who want to help and please you. So shop at home for a merrier, thriftier Christmas.

Your Sierra Madre Merchants
Will be Open Every Night
Until Christmas
Beginning
Next Monday, December 11th
